Ayer's Sarsaparilla

bored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our complaints. afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints: —

SCROPULA AND SCROPULOUS COMPLAINTS,
ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUNORS, SALT RHEUN, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AF-PECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-RALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is ob-structed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar Mest of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on

A PROPOSITION.—The idea is now everywhere entertained, by the Southern people, that preparation is necessary, in order to meet the emergencies which may spring up—(of what distinctive feature no one may forsee—may be sudden, fearful and startling in character, like the spring of the investigation with ernment, during the coming six months. This preparation should consist, too, of something more than merely watching the movements of the ene-mies' columns—of a mental determination to be ready. Should the Abolition "Wide Awake" policy be precipitated, there would be but little time to collect, organize, arm and be ready for service. Some of the parishes are gallantly taking the initiative in this matter—throwing together, ware how they are led into their traps. under military discipline, brave, active and deter-mined men, to be tendered to the Governor, or to move to action independently, in the event of ne-

In this connection, I submit a proposition, differing somewhat from any plan yet adopted, but believed to be in harmony with the eventfulness of the times. South Carolina is ready to spring at once to the rescue, should any one of then move off alone. I propose [not arrogating to myself the capacities of a leader or commandant, but ready to serve in any position which may be assigned to me,] to raise a company of one hundred (or more) active and efficient men, mounted and properly equipped, whose services are to be tendered to the first State that leaves the Union, in the event of Lincoln's election. As soon as either of the States seede, they will repair to the either of the States seeded, they will repair to the capital of the same, where organization will immediately ensue. Should South Carolina lead, Columbia will be the rendezvous. Those who may desire to enroll themselves for this contingent service, will signify the same to me or leave their names at the Watchman office. This proposition is made in good faith, believing many will come forward competent nobly to fill the position of officers.

We are glad to see the people of our State everywhere preparing for the crisis which is at hand. As an offset to the "Wide Awakes" of the North, "Minute Men" are organizing in all the principal districts in South Carolina. Their object is to form an armed body of men, and to join in with our fellow-citizens, now forming in this and our sister States as "Minute Men," whose duty is to already complete and powerful, embracing the flower of the youth, and led on by the most influ-ential citizens. The badge adopted is a blue robravely on, and let every son of Carolina prepare to mount the blue cockade.

Infamy of the Detective System-the End

Justifying the Means. A case, tried in the Recorder's Court, Satarday, says the Chicago Democrat of the 15th, furnished a new and very impressive illustra tion of the infamy of the Detective system, as carried on by some of the private Detective agencies here. This was the case of Michael Kirby, indicted for the crime of aro meet it. If he thinks that a State has son, in setting fire to the lumber-yard of Holt & Mason, in this city a long time ago. Kirby had just served out a term of imprison ment in the penitentiary, for setting fire to warehouse in Peoria. The witness against him was a man named Michael Finnucane. an employee of one of the Detective agencies According to this man's own testimony he had met Kirby for the first time at Peoria. He there wormed himself into his confidence, and entrapped him into a plan to set to the living, and as beautifully written as fire to the said warehouse. He bought the true: camphene and the matches for Kirby to do the "job" with, and accompanied him under the building on the night when the "job" was to be done, previously stationing officers where they would apprehend them as they emerged after firing the building. The plot vorked as designed—the officers arrested nucane had also inveigled into the plot, and allowed Finnucane to escape. While "work ing up the job," Finnucane went on to state, e got so far into the confidence of Kirby that he told him that it was he (Kirby) who set fire to the lumber-yard of Holt & Mason; and no sooner had Kirby got out of the penitentiary, whither he had been sent for the Peoria crime, than he was arrested to be punshed for the crime which he disclosed to When he had reached this point the Court

The signs of the times are evident that Breckin noble is there, O ye brothers of the craft, as the ridge can never be President. The indications are that he will be the last man in the race, and con equently will be unable to get even into the House contest, should the election fail before the people. He knows he will never be Presi lent, yet for the paltry and hollow honor of being candidate for the office, he is willing to sully the escutcheon of American statesmanship with the taint of sectionalism. No politician ever stood before our country with the reputation of the young and gifted Breckinridge. But ambition has caused angels to fall. Inmates of Heaven hav been sunk to hell on account of their innate love of greatness. Time was when services to the Stat were deemed necessary to secure their highes honors. Now, (oh! shame to human nature) the lic life but ten years, all told. Before he had reach ed his meridian he was elevated to the second of erver, a seeker for and a follower after populari ty, regardless of the best interests of the nation He was never known to frame or express an opin on on any subject until its popularity or unpopu arity had been fully established. A trickster by inclination, a time server by practice, and a lus for greatness which has overruled many noblqualities, he was the man for the unprinciple ectionalists of Charleston and Baltimore, and the traitorous disunionists of Richmond. But he can't be elected. He is politically dead, dead, DEAD; let the coffin pass.

The waters of the "mighty Mississippi," at this point, are still receding. Sand bars, snage and other dangers to which our river fleet is exposed, are daily brought to light. The Death of a Child-A Touching Sketch.

The, following paragraphs, from the pen of B. F. Taylor, of the Chicago Journal, on the death of a child, are full of consolation

It went in the morning-a bright and radiant morning, many went yesterday, more to-day, and there are dews to be shed for the departures of to-morrow. And can it be wondered that pleasant summer mornings should beguile them into going? Is it marvel that they do not wait for the burden and the noon, but follow the lark, and hear her song over the ruin of the rainbow? That those words so beautiful, they should make BOOKS! BOOKS!! so true, "and joy cometh in the morning."

Going in the morning! A glorious morning—when the sky is all in beauty, and the world is all bliss; ere the dews have gone to heaven, or the stars have gone to God; when the birds are singing, and the cool winds are blowing, and the flowers are out that will be shut at noon, and the clouds that are never rent in rain, and the shadows inlaid with

They'll Amelia and Nottoway stood thus: borne upon the four winds to the uttermost parts of the United States. So notorious was the man, and so detestable were his principles, that at the commencement of the present canvass, the Breckinridge faction repudiated both with indignation and scorn. They insisted that they could not control Mr. Yancey's opinions, and should not, therefore, he held responsible for them. But in course of time, Mr. Yancey's political affair. As we can gain nothing practical gate of about 700; we have a gain for Bell over Buchanan of 227!! Glory enough for one opinions underwent a change. When he the most ardent and successful pursuit of this day! All hail to the triumphant and significommenced his political pilgrimage, it was soon ascertained that Mr. Yancey's Disunionism was like the mercury in a thermome ter, and rose and fell according to the temperature of the surrounding political atmosphere. As he neared the North pole, the fire in his Southern heart gradually cooled, and when he crossed the United States political equator, he "roared as gently as a Yet we are beating the air about an intangisucking dove." The Southern Mr. Yancey had become a Northern Miss Nancey, and he as a discussion would be about constructing eulogized the Union in terms melliflously a railroad to Africa. bland and surprisingly eloquent. He smiled and smirked with the Northern people awhile, and finally started on his return trip, that anomalous being-a Breckinridge Union man. The Breckinridge party in Kentucky, being in a desperate straight and ready to catch at straws, conceived the bright idea of interests! Is it not time, we ask, for a sending for Yancey to make Breckinridge speeches in this Commonwealth. Yancey was willing. Like a "swift Zany," he capered over here, to talk of himself, and to raise the drooping spirits of the despairing

We feel justified in saying that Mr. Magoffin is not the exclusive Governor of the Yancev party, or of any other party in Kentucky. The people claim him as their Chief Executive. In our humble opinion Governor Magoffin might have cherished his private preferences with great propriety, and our opinion is equally clear that when he descended from the dignity of his high station to act as gentleman usher for Mr. Yancey, he overstepped both the bounds of propriety and of good taste.

opinions of this man Yancey are held in utter detestation, not only by a large majority of those who placed him in office, but by over sixty-seven thousand voters, whose first choice, Governor Magoffin was not. How could he, then, with any degree of propriety, throw the weight of his personal and official influence in favor of Yancey? Nay, more. How could he, consistently with the dignity of his position, and the views of his constituents, indorse Mr. Yancey to the Union-loving people of Kentucky?

If it is Governor Magoffin's pleasure, he can support, openly, ardently, and zealously the cause of secession and disunion. If it accords with his own peculiar views of magisterial dignity, he can introduce Mr. Yancey to Kentucky audiences, and indorse the man and his doctrines to Kentucky freemen; but it is the indorsement of one man only and not of the people. It is the indorsement of Governor Magoffin, to which, thank God, he has no power to affix the great seal of this Commonwealth.

We promised two years ago to try and give to the Agriculturalists and Stock Raisers of Kentucky a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every one of its patrons: Have we redeemed that pledge? Have we given you a fair equivalent for THE DOLLAR, which was market value, ... Hartford City Bonds, 6 per cent., fair equivalent for THE DOLLAR, which was market value, ... market value, ... market value, ... paid for the KENTUCKY FARMER? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscriptions, and send us one on more additional names for the THIRD VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume about paid the expenses of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would published ONE VOLUME whether we obtained a sufficient amount to pay its expenses or not. We redeemed that pledge The subscription list increased for the Second Volume, but is nothing like so large as it should be. Shall we have the kind and continued supchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this Company in aid in extending its circulation? If so, we promise to do everything in our power to make the paper worthy of a generous Kentucky public.

The "Kentucky Farmer" will still be published monthy, in its present form of sixteen large quarto pages, for ONE DOLLAR per annum, payable invariably in advance. As the small amount charged for the paper will not justify the trouble and expense of collecting subscriptions, no paper will be forwarded unless paid for in advance.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOS-TETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BIT-TERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bit ters for the last year amounted to over a halfmillion bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare nedicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system. giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach depreparation while suffering from stomach de-rangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their gares are so harassing that their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers gene-rally prefer the Bitters to all other invigora tors that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength. All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhæa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hos-tetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial. CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label

Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South America, and Germany.

THE VESPER GAS. OR AIR LIGHT.

The Cheapest, most Brilliant, and most Convenient Artificial Light in the World! THE Vesper Gas Light has won for itself a reputation for elegance, economy, safety, and simplicity far beyond any other artificial light. The Vesper Gas flame and fixtures precisely re-semble in form those of coal gas; but in brilliancy and purity of light it possesses a decided advan-tage over even Louisville coal gas. It requires no chimney; there is no need of daily trimming of wick; and the construction of the fixture is so simple that it is not liable to get out of ordor, and simple that it is not hable to get out of order, and a child can manage it readily. The gas burned in the Vesper fixtures is generated from pure coal oil, without any admixture of alcohol or other foreign ingredient. It is entirely free from odor while burning, as, by a simple contrivance, the vapor of the oil is mixed with the atmosphere, producing perfect combustion and a most intense light. ducing perfect combustion and a most intense light. The light has been pronounced, by those who have had it in constant use for months, as most pleasant to the eye while reading or sewing, there being no flicker or unsteadiness in the flame. The Vesper Gas Light is portable, and can be used in town or ountry—in fact, wherever artificial light is required. The fixtures themselves are adapted in styles to suit all tastes, from the plain single-light burner to the most costly chandelier. Each chan-delier is perfect in itself; there is no outlay to be made for service pipes. The gas is generated in the burner, and all fixtures, from the cheap singleight burner to the expensive chandelier, are min ature gas-works in themselves. They are sold a prices which do not exceed the cost of the ordinary gas fixtures of similar style and ornamentation price list will be sent to any address on applica-

MERCHANTS Visiting Louisville should not fail to procure the Vesper Gas Fixtures for their stores. Churches, Hotels, Public Halls, and Private Resi-

Throughout the State can now be fitted up with these elegant and convenient chandeliers, and other beautiful gas fixtures, which add so much to the appearance of such places, and to the comfort of the home circle, and which heretofore could be used only in those favored districts embraced with-n the coal-gas limits of large cities. The limited space of an advertisement precludes the insertion here of the numerous testimonials of approval we have received from all quarters. Sufice it to say, scientific men and others who have examined and thoroughly tested the merits of the Vesper Gas Light, pronounce it the best and cheapest artificial light now known.

The proprietor respectfully requests responsible merchants in every town and county in the State to correspond with him, believing they will find it to their interest to aid him in introducing this unequaled light to their customers. We have just put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine-never has it failed in a sir gle instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction Looper Sewing Machines—one of the best and cheapest machines now in use. Price $38; Hemfects and medicinal virtues. We speak in thi matter "what we do know" after ten years experi-ence and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and ex-haustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILL-FUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER-FAILING SUCCESS in THOUSANDS OF CASES ing from any of the foregoing complaints—do no let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE, yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE, to follow the relief that the relief that will be suffered by the relief that the
